TITLE IX & ATHLETICS

- Title IX DOES require an institution to:
 - Provide an equal opportunity for female and male students to become intercollegiate athletes.
 - Analyzed by means of a three-part test
 - Provide equivalent treatment of participants in the overall women's program as compared to the overall men's program.
 - Analyzed according to thirteen (13) different program components.

THE THREE-PART TEST: ACCOMMODATION OF INTERESTS AND ABILITIES

1. Proportionality
 2. Program Expansion
 3. Full Accommodation

OVERSIGHT OF ATHLETICS GENDER EQUITY: THREE-PART TEST (1979)

Effective accommodation of interests and abilities (this is an “or” test, not an “and” test):

- Prong 1: Opportunities for males and females substantially proportionate to their respective enrollments; OR
- Prong 2: Where one sex has been underrepresented, a history and continuing practice of program expansion responsive to the developing interests and abilities of that sex; OR
- Prong 3: Where one sex is underrepresented and cannot show a continuing practice of program expansion, whether it can be demonstrated that the interests and abilities of that sex have been fully and effectively accommodated by that present program.

LEVELS OF COMPETITION

1. Equivalently Advanced Competitive Opportunities
2. Upgrades of Competitive Opportunities

Compliance is assessed by examining:

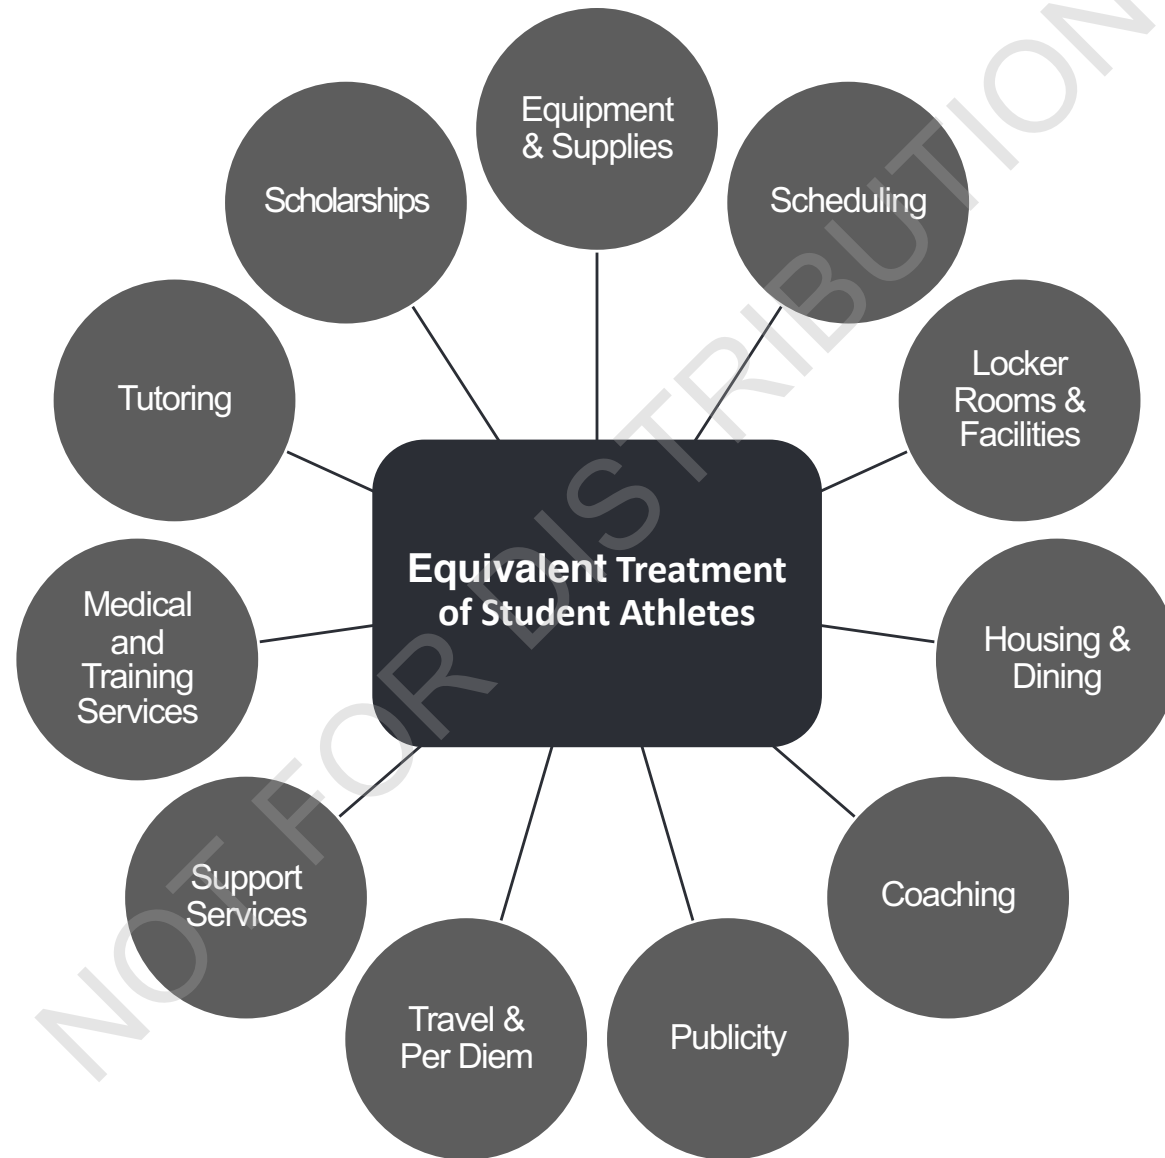

1. Whether the competitive schedules for men's and women's teams, on a program-wide basis, afford proportionally similar numbers of male and female athletes equivalently advanced competitive opportunities; OR
2. Whether the institution can demonstrate a history and continuing practice of upgrading the competitive opportunities available to the historically disadvantaged sex as warranted by developing abilities among the athletes of that sex.

HECOX V. LITTLE (FILED APRIL 2020)

Idaho HB 500:

- Designates all high school/college sport on the basis of “biological” sex
- Male athletes are banned from female teams
- Female athletes whose sex is “disputed” must submit to medical examination

Arguments:

- Idaho law violates equal protection rights of female athletes by subjecting them, but not male athletes, to gender scrutiny.
- Idaho law violates equal protection rights of transgender athletes because their categorical exclusion from women’s sport is not tied to a valid objective.
- Idaho law violates due process rights of female athletes by invading their privacy with intrusive medical intervention.

Connecticut high school transgender athletes 'no longer want to remain silent' following Title IX complaint

By DAN BRECHLIN
HARTFORD COURANT | JUN 20, 2019 | 6:00 AM

- Plaintiffs: cisgender girls who competed against transgender athletes in track
- Argument: CIAC's inclusive policy violates their rights under Title IX by diminishing opportunities for girls.
- Title IX prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex, but permits separate athletics teams as long as the overall quantity and quality of opportunity is equitable.
- Title IX does not define "sex" but courts in Title IX cases about bathrooms and locker rooms have held that sex discrimination includes discrimination against transgender students. See also Bostock v. Clayton County (Title VII),
- Separately, OCR issued a ruling letter in May, concluding that CIAC policy violates Title IX. No analysis of "sex."
